Scholarship

Much of my research foregrounds sexuality, desire, and queerness. I have written about the nuances of disclosing same-gender attraction—often referred to as “coming out (of the closet)”—and how coming-out often never ends as every new audience makes for a new time to disclose one’s likes and loves. I have studied queer bars, fetish communities, and media representations, as well as how queer folks live with others who commit homophobic and transphobic slights. I have also prioritized building an interdisciplinary and international infrastructure for autoethnography, a method that merges the practices of life writing with the practices of ethnography.

Service

I consider service a vital component of department, college, university, and professional life. I have chaired two academic departments and dozens of committees. I am the founding co-editor of the Journal of Autoethnography, co-editor of the Writing Lives book series, and the Executive Director of the International Association of Autoethnography and Narrative Inquiry. I also serve on the editorial boards of 15+ journals and have served as an ad-hoc reviewer for 100+ journals and 50+ book manuscripts.

Journal

- 2019-present Founding co-editor, with Andrew F. Herrmann, Journal of Autoethnography, University of California Press

Received the 2022 Best New Journal Award from the Council of Editors of Learned Journals.

Book Series

2016-present Co-editor, with Arthur P. Bochner and Carolyn Ellis, Writing Lives: Ethnographic Narratives, Routledge
